

CORNISH COAST.
LANDS' END, AND LONGSHIP LIGHTHOUSE

BRITISH LIGHTHOUSES.—Series III.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "Oilette" [Regd.] Postcard 9387

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

By Appointment.

The Lands End is a fine rugged piece of coast which gains an additional attraction owing to its being the most westerly point of England, the Lizard being the southernmost. Off the coast are many isolated masses of rock, forming a considerable menace to navigation, and to indicate the danger, the Longship Lighthouse has been erected on Carn Bras. Its lantern is 123 feet above high water mark.

Printed in England.
